

SCOTSWOOD CHURCH. CONSECRATION BY THE LORD BISHOP OF DUNDEE.

Yesterday (Thursday) morning, the Church of St. Andrew's, Scotswood, was consecrated by the Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of Dundee...

The Bishop of Dundee took for his text part of the 13th chapter of the Book of Numbers, and he exhorted the congregation to be diligent in their service to God and to their fellow men...

The Bishop of Dundee took for his text part of the 13th chapter of the Book of Numbers, and he exhorted the congregation to be diligent in their service to God and to their fellow men...

The Bishop of Dundee took for his text part of the 13th chapter of the Book of Numbers, and he exhorted the congregation to be diligent in their service to God and to their fellow men...

THE BISHOP AT NEWCASTLE IN NEW YEAR.

On Sunday last the Right Rev. the Bishop of Newcastle, D.D., preached in the morning at St. Thomas's, and in the afternoon at St. Andrew's, Newcastle.

The Bishop of Newcastle expressed his thanks for the hospitality which he had received at the hands of the Rev. the Rector of St. Andrew's, Newcastle, and the Rev. the Rector of St. Thomas's, Newcastle.

The Bishop of Newcastle expressed his thanks for the hospitality which he had received at the hands of the Rev. the Rector of St. Andrew's, Newcastle, and the Rev. the Rector of St. Thomas's, Newcastle.

The Bishop of Newcastle expressed his thanks for the hospitality which he had received at the hands of the Rev. the Rector of St. Andrew's, Newcastle, and the Rev. the Rector of St. Thomas's, Newcastle.

The Bishop of Newcastle expressed his thanks for the hospitality which he had received at the hands of the Rev. the Rector of St. Andrew's, Newcastle, and the Rev. the Rector of St. Thomas's, Newcastle.

The Bishop of Newcastle expressed his thanks for the hospitality which he had received at the hands of the Rev. the Rector of St. Andrew's, Newcastle, and the Rev. the Rector of St. Thomas's, Newcastle.

The Bishop of Newcastle expressed his thanks for the hospitality which he had received at the hands of the Rev. the Rector of St. Andrew's, Newcastle, and the Rev. the Rector of St. Thomas's, Newcastle.

DEATH OF MR JUSTICE SHER.

It appears that the illness of Mr Justice Sher has been long and painful, and that he died on Wednesday morning, at his residence, 10, Grosvenor Street, London.

It appears that the illness of Mr Justice Sher has been long and painful, and that he died on Wednesday morning, at his residence, 10, Grosvenor Street, London.

It appears that the illness of Mr Justice Sher has been long and painful, and that he died on Wednesday morning, at his residence, 10, Grosvenor Street, London.

It appears that the illness of Mr Justice Sher has been long and painful, and that he died on Wednesday morning, at his residence, 10, Grosvenor Street, London.

It appears that the illness of Mr Justice Sher has been long and painful, and that he died on Wednesday morning, at his residence, 10, Grosvenor Street, London.

It appears that the illness of Mr Justice Sher has been long and painful, and that he died on Wednesday morning, at his residence, 10, Grosvenor Street, London.

It appears that the illness of Mr Justice Sher has been long and painful, and that he died on Wednesday morning, at his residence, 10, Grosvenor Street, London.

BLIND AND TYNE RAILWAY.

The following is the twenty-ninth report of the directors, to be presented at the half-yearly general meeting of the Tyne Railway Company.

The following is the twenty-ninth report of the directors, to be presented at the half-yearly general meeting of the Tyne Railway Company.

The following is the twenty-ninth report of the directors, to be presented at the half-yearly general meeting of the Tyne Railway Company.

The following is the twenty-ninth report of the directors, to be presented at the half-yearly general meeting of the Tyne Railway Company.

The following is the twenty-ninth report of the directors, to be presented at the half-yearly general meeting of the Tyne Railway Company.

The following is the twenty-ninth report of the directors, to be presented at the half-yearly general meeting of the Tyne Railway Company.

The following is the twenty-ninth report of the directors, to be presented at the half-yearly general meeting of the Tyne Railway Company.

SERIOUS ILLNESS OF LORD DERBY.

The evening illness of Lord Derby on Friday night, at his residence, 10, Grosvenor Street, London, was very serious.

The evening illness of Lord Derby on Friday night, at his residence, 10, Grosvenor Street, London, was very serious.

The evening illness of Lord Derby on Friday night, at his residence, 10, Grosvenor Street, London, was very serious.

The evening illness of Lord Derby on Friday night, at his residence, 10, Grosvenor Street, London, was very serious.

The evening illness of Lord Derby on Friday night, at his residence, 10, Grosvenor Street, London, was very serious.

The evening illness of Lord Derby on Friday night, at his residence, 10, Grosvenor Street, London, was very serious.

The evening illness of Lord Derby on Friday night, at his residence, 10, Grosvenor Street, London, was very serious.

A FENIAN LEADER SENTENCED TO PENAL SERVITUDE.

Patrick O'Connell, a Fenian leader, was sentenced to penal servitude for a term of five years by the Court on Tuesday.

Patrick O'Connell, a Fenian leader, was sentenced to penal servitude for a term of five years by the Court on Tuesday.

Patrick O'Connell, a Fenian leader, was sentenced to penal servitude for a term of five years by the Court on Tuesday.

Patrick O'Connell, a Fenian leader, was sentenced to penal servitude for a term of five years by the Court on Tuesday.

Patrick O'Connell, a Fenian leader, was sentenced to penal servitude for a term of five years by the Court on Tuesday.

Patrick O'Connell, a Fenian leader, was sentenced to penal servitude for a term of five years by the Court on Tuesday.

Patrick O'Connell, a Fenian leader, was sentenced to penal servitude for a term of five years by the Court on Tuesday.